

Deed and Title

Whereas the House of Shalott, for Exceptional Service to the House of Tudor in shipping and in trade, and for the aide of men, supplies and arms to serve the causes of the House of Tudor in its time of great need;

Do I, Henry Tudor, King of England hereby Decree:

The Island, located at longitude 4 degrees 43 minutes and latitude 51 degrees 38 minutes, off the east coast of Tenby in Wales; in Garmarthen Bay; in the Celtic Sea; hereafter to be known as the Isle of Standauffish, is to be granted to the House of Shalott, in perpetuity, to use as they see fit.

It is further decreed that Baron Sir Zergon of Shalott shall serve as Viceroy of said Island.

Unto this I set my hand, on this 10th day of October, in the year of our Lord, 1487;

Seal

His Royal Majesty, King of England
